

YOUR COLLEAGUES' JOB SATISFACTION? YOU CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE!

ACV Puls? That's you!

NEVER WORK• ALONE

Labour union (noun; plural: labour unions)

Colleagues who together make a difference for more workplace satisfaction

As a group of colleagues you have more opportunities to engage in discussions with your employer about various aspects of your work situation.

From compensation and work schedules to practical work organization: participation ensures better workplace satisfaction. ACV Puls supports you in addressing these issues.

Why join?

- By getting involved with our union, you convert your positive energy into tangible results that benefit you and your colleagues.
- You have an impact on the organization and will develop your skills.
- You help shape the union of the future and contribute to a sustainable society where quality of life for everyone is central.
- ACV Puls is a democratic organization where active members make the decisions.

What impact can you make?

Making a difference together can be achieved in many ways, considering your individual talents and commitment.

- Are you a good listener and a connecting factor for your colleagues?
- Do you like helping others when they are looking for guidance?
- Or do you enjoy giving feedback?
- Do you prefer to work systematically to achieve results in a specific case?
- Do you want to be more involved in the organization's policies?

You choose!

What does ACV Puls offer you?

As an ACV Puls contactperson in your organization, you will have a direct line to one of our trade union professionals who will coach you. Our information and training allows you to grow at your own pace. You become part of a network of more than 10,000 volunteers who support each other through exchange of best practices and peer support.

Would you like more information?

Do you wonder if a rol in the union is something for you?
Interested in a chat with an experienced expert?
Contact us via the QR-code and together we'll discuss what input will help you move forward.

